

Ventilation and COVID-19

Did you know that the coronavirus can stay floating in the air? To avoid breathing the virus in, wear masks and make sure that the old contaminated air leaves the room. You can do that by opening a window or door.

Windows and doors closed, not wearing masks

Windows and doors open, wearing masks